Water Bank Program

From Inception of Program through September 30, 1993

The Water
91-559 app
January 2, 1

The WBP is habitat for erosion; cor
control; and

Under the important migratory waterfowl nesting, breeding or feeding areas for the conservation of specified wetlands. The agreements are for 10-year periods with provision for renewals for additional periods.

The program operates primarily in the northern part of the central flyway and the northern and southern part of the Mississippi River flyway which are the major migratory water routes used by waterfowl. The program also operates along other flyways in the States where the program is authorized.

The WBP is administered by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) of the United States Department of Agriculture through its State and County Offices. Technical assistance is provided by the Soil Conservation Service.

This summary reflects the accomplishments under the WBP for all 10-year agreements still in effect and cost-shares carried out in 1993. This summary also includes a historical table reflecting accomplishments of completed 10-year agreements since inception of the program in 1972.
